

A cluster of overlapping triangles in shades of magenta, red, orange, and yellow, located in the top-left corner of the slide.

PowerPoint's New 3D Capabilities

Lia “P-Spice”

A cluster of overlapping triangles in shades of teal, blue, and light green, located in the bottom-right corner of the slide.

Quick Bio

Day Job: Strategy and Leadership Consultant

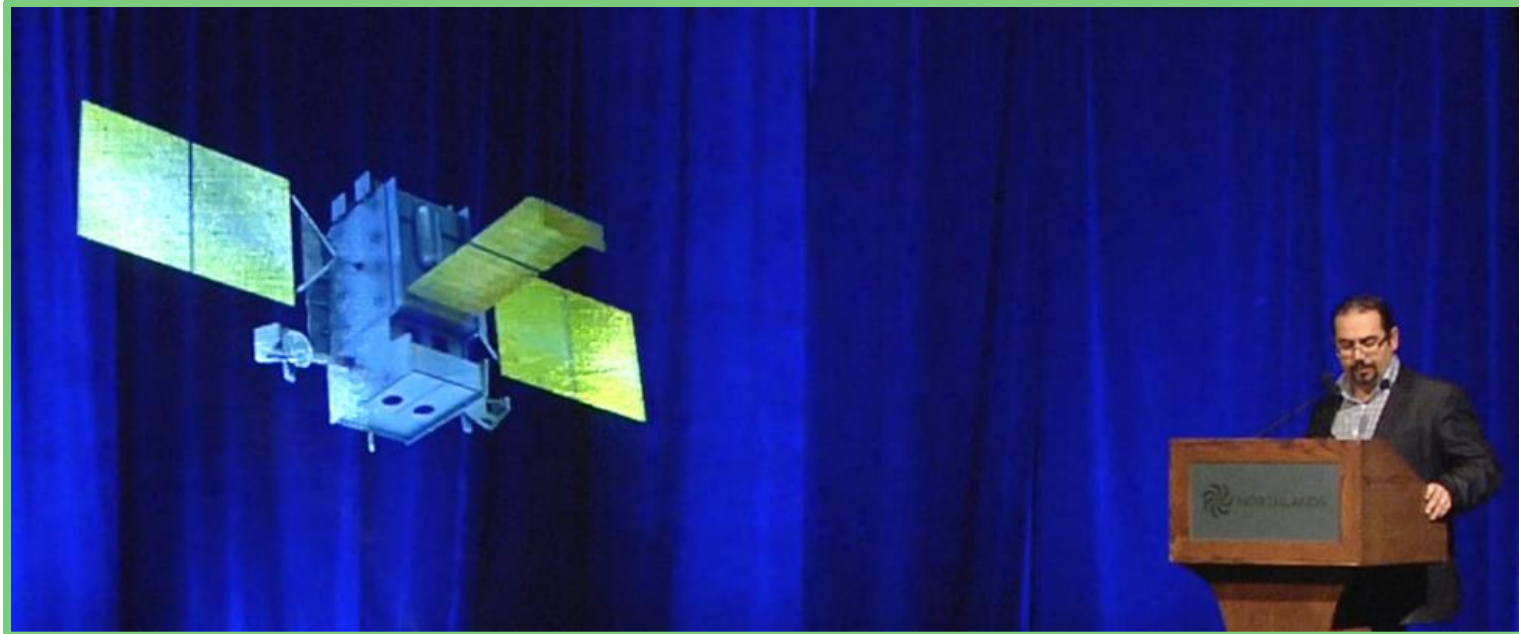

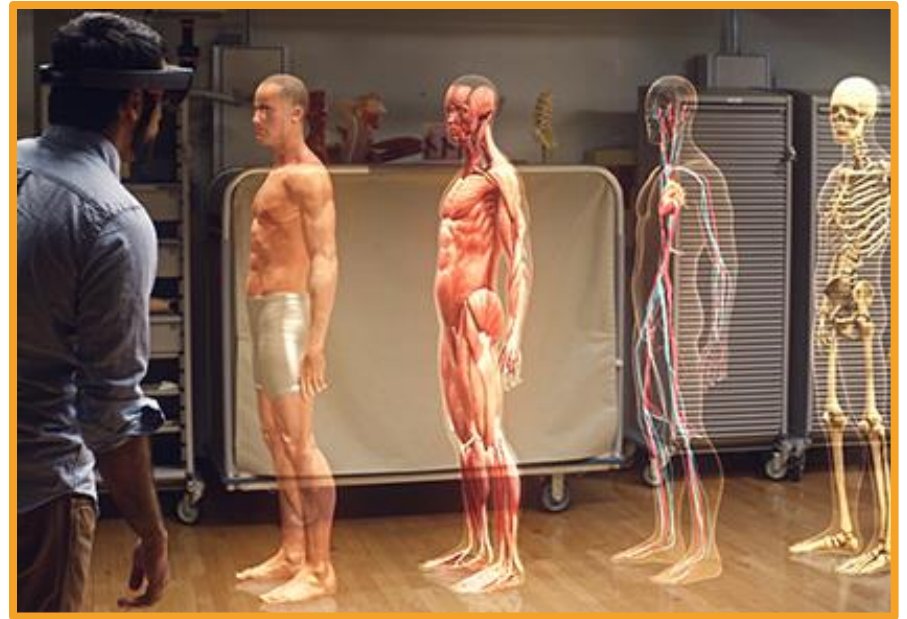

- Work with global clients to help them envision and prepare for the future
- Consult with diverse clients across many industries
- Specialize in teaching strategic, future-focused thinking

Night Fun: Blogger / PowerPoint Enthusiast

- PowerPoint Spice YouTube channel
- Spicy Presentations blog
- Speed n' Spice partnership with Nuts & Bolts

3D is the Future...

...and Microsoft's
“3D for Everyone” mission is accelerating our path there.

- Produce 1 million tons of fruit per year worldwide

“3D for Everyone” Portfolio

Website for sharing 3D models

App for creating and customizing 3D models

Office App for using 3D models in presentations

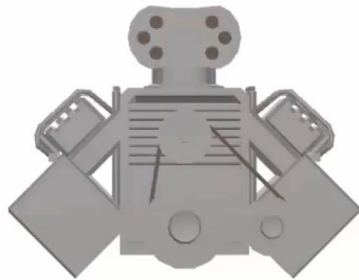

Example:

Benefits of 3D

Show different angles
of diagrams

ENGINE OF THE FUTURE

Add elements of surprise

Make more creative designs

BOTTOM LINE: Add more CLARITY, ENGAGEMENT, AND IMPACT

Examples for Today

Drawing
Freehand

Customizing
Stickers

Remixing
Models

Going
Deep

EXAMPLES

(SEE MY EXAMPLES IN THE OTHER FILE)

Top 3 Improvement Opportunities for 3D Portfolio

- Low resolution on stickers (Microsoft addressing...)
- No 3D animation options within a slide (Microsoft addressing...)
- Less-than-intuitive rotation options (unclear if Microsoft knows)

Requirements for 3D Portfolio

Remix 3D

Paint 3D

PowerPoint

- Windows 10 14800.0 or higher (ideally, Windows Insider)
- Architecture X86 or X64
- PowerPoint 365 Subscription

THANK YOU

